Become a member of PCSA today

The way we care for our dying is a significant indicator of the kind of society we are. From the moment you are told that you have a life limiting illness, you and your family are encouraged to find out more about services and supports available to help you to live, die and grieve well. Becoming a member shows your support for those in need of palliative care.

Palliative Care is everyone's business.

Who can join?

- Any individual or organisation who has an interest in palliative care and who supports the principle purpose and objectives of Palliative Care South Australia.

What will I receive?

- A bi-monthly newsletter and updates on upcoming, relevant virtual and face-2-face events.
- Access to all free educational forums.
- Discounted registration for PCSA's biennial conference and other fee paying events.

Can I be involved?

- We welcome your feedback on palliative care policies, submissions and issues.
- Forums / Webinars / Workshops.
- We welcome you to join community, advisory and working groups and feed the details back to us.

What will I be supporting?

- Helping to give PCSA a collective voice for palliative care in South Australia.
- You will be building palliative care education and knowledge within our state.
- You can be part of events that encourage open conversations about life and death.
- You can be growing a non-for-profit organisation, which supports all South Australians to live, die and grieve well.
